

A short interview with Kevin Brennan

How long have you known each other?

KB- Individually I've known each member for over 20 years.

How did you meet?

KB- The New York City music scene. There's usually only 1 degree of separation if that.

What drew you to the music of Bad Company?

KB- The promise of women and gold.

What inspired you to start playing music/singing?

KB- The promise of women and gold.

If you weren't a musician, what would you be doing?

KB- Making money.

What's your weirdest onstage moment?

KB- While playing a sold out show in Austin Texas, I literally felt the room levitate. It was freaking awesome.

What's your favorite song to sing when you're alone in your car?

KB- Evergreen by Barbra Streisand.

What's your favorite concert?

KB- The one I'm headlining.

Contact: rocknrollfantasyband@gmail.com